II. Recommendations Concerning Article VII, Education, of a Proposed Constitution for Texas

At a joint meeting of the Council of Presidents and the Governing Boards of the Public Senior Colleges and Universities, the enclosed document entitled "Recommendations Concerning Article VII, Education, of a Proposed Constitution for Texas" was unanimously approved and the decision was made that regents and presidents should work for the language as contained in this document. It is hoped that by each regent and president throughout the state working with his senator and representative adequate information can be communicated about the proposed language for Article VII to insure its inclusion in the new constitution. The recommendations as written in the document will be presented to the Education Committee of the Constitutional Convention on January 28, 1974, by Representative R. B. McAlister of Lubbock.

Along with the recommended language for Article VII of the new constitution, an attachment is enclosed listing the members of the Constitutional Convention's Committee on Education and Committee on Finance. Although the Committee on Education will receive the report and make recommendations for language in the Constitution, the Committee on Finance will be deeply involved with the issues contained in Sections 8, 9, and 10. Each of us not only needs to contact our own senator and representative requesting that they talk with members of the Education and Finance Committees but it will also be helpful to communicate directly with the committee members whom we know.

Additionally, the attachment includes two other important committees - the Committee on Local Government and the Committee on Legislature.
