Democratic Presidential Candidate Bill Clinton visits UT Tyler

Clinton spoke to a crowd of 400 voters at Harvey Lake on Sunday, March 8. He addressed economic concerns ranging from foreign trade with Japan to the $3.5 trillion budget deficit. Mindful of his audience, Clinton shared his proposal for reforming the student loan system using the service-for-school model of the G.I. Bill. Finally, he discussed his plans for a national healthcare policy and how he would oversee a transition from a defense-based economy to a domestic one. By the end of the week, he had swept the Super Tuesday primaries to edge out rival Paul Tsongas in the race for the Democratic nomination.

Computer Science department receives $64,000 grant.

Assistant professor Dr. Cathy Wu and professors Dr. George Whitson and Dr. Jerry McLarty secured two research grants from CRAY Research, Inc. for the "support of student research assistanceships and writing programs for the Cray Supercomputer". The proposed project, sponsored by the U.S. Government, dealt with mapping and sequencing human genomes.

Thirty Years Ago (March 1982)

Mrs. Sarah Zuckerman, 85, is the oldest student on campus.

Mrs. Zuckerman, wife of the late Tyler pathologist Dr. William Zuckerman, enrolled at UT Tyler after donating money to create the Dr. William Zuckerman Laboratory of Electron Microscopy (Department of Biology). Mrs. Zuckerman attended Dr. Paxton Hart's "Literary Appreciation" class in the spring of 1982.

UT Tyler students respond to 20/20 special about the criminal justice system in Tyler, Texas.

The episode, titled "Run Away Justice: Crime and Corruption Marks the Small East Texas town of Tyler", originally ran on ABC in 1980. Students were interviewed about the show during the 1982 trial of former Tyler Police Chief Willie Hardey. Students surveyed represented a broad range of opinions on the case.
