FIRST TEU FINE ARTS FESTIVAL OPENS SUNDAY; CONTINUES THROUGH SATURDAY

A TEU Fine Arts Festival opens Sunday with a concert dedicating the Steinway grand piano and continues through Saturday, April 23, with a joint concert by six college choirs as the grand finale.

Mixed between these musical events will be a three-night drama production and an art exhibition and demonstration.

All events are free and open to the public.

Opening the festival will be a program by Drs. Doris and Ralph Harrel. Ralph Harrel is dean of the School of Creative Arts at Southwest Texas State University and his wife is professor of piano at the University of Texas at San Antonio. The recital will begin at 3:30 p.m. in the University Center.

Sue Dunn, a voice student, will present her senior recital at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in UC 134.

Art entries from Lon Morris College, Kilgore College, Henderson County Junior College and Navarro College will be on exhibit the entire week at the south end of the second level of the Hudnall-Pirtle-Roosth Building.

Guest artist Hiram Williams of the University of Florida will demonstrate his painting techniques at 10 a.m. April 22 in HPR 275. He will also critique the art exhibition.

Biography, a comedy by S. N. Behrman, will be presented April 20-22 in ADM 127.

Choirs from Jacksonville Baptist College, Navarro College, Kilgore College, Panola Junior College and Tyler Junior College will be on campus Saturday, April 23.

Each junior college will perform for a critique during a session from 9:30-11:30 a.m. They will have rehearsal Saturday afternoon and present a joint concert at 7 p.m. in the University Center. The TEU Concert Choral will open the concert. Each visiting choral group will perform two selections and all will combine talents for the program finale.
