1978 Fall Convocation To Honor 142 Students

The 1978 Fall Convocation program is scheduled for 4 p.m. Friday, Dec. 8 in room 122 of the Physical and Health Education Building. Students who are completing degree requirements this semester will be recognized at the program and honored with a reception.

Texas Eastern University has 142 candidates for degrees this semester, including 32 for master's degrees and 110 for bachelor's degrees. Master's degree candidates include 13 in interdisciplinary studies, 3 in business administration and 16 in education and psychology.

All six schools have candidates for bachelor's degrees.

The 142 candidates represent the largest number of potential graduates in a fall semester for Texas Eastern. The current record is 114 set in the fall of 1977.

James H. Stewart Jr. will preside at the convocation. Participants will include the five academic deans and Donald W. Whisenhunt.

Ballard, Young Are TEU

Piper Nominees For 1979

Joyce E. Ballard and Marilyn Young are the Texas Eastern University nominees for consideration by the Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation as 1979 Piper Professors.

The foundation honors 10 professors on a statewide basis each year for outstanding academic, scientific and scholarly achievement, and for their dedication to the teaching profession. A faculty-student Piper Committee, chaired by Andrew S. Szarka, acted on nominations submitted by TEU faculty and students and submitted two nominees to the Faculty Senate for endorsement with a final review and approval given by President James H. Stewart Jr.

Ballard, an associate professor of health and physical education, joined the TEU faculty in September 1975. She has 17 years teaching experience.

Young is an associate professor of business administration and coordinator of the MBA program at TEU. She joined the faculty in September 1974 and has 10 years teaching experience.

Previous TEU nominees for the Piper Professor Award include Frank H. Smyrl in 1974 and 1975, Patricia A. Gajda in 1976, Vincent J. Falzone in 1977, and James R. Stewart and Joanna Martin in 1978.

Self-Study Hearings Continue

Seven hearings on standards of the Texas Eastern University self-study have been completed with five additional hearings tentatively scheduled in December.

All hearings will begin at 3 p.m. in ADM 127. The hearings are open to all TEU employees.

The tentative schedule for December is as follows:

- Dec. 5 -- X: Graduate Program
- Dec. 7 -- VII. Student Development Services
- Dec. 12 -- V. Faculty
- Dec. 14 -- III. Educational Program
- Dec. 19 -- XII: Planning for the Future

36 TEU Students Listed

In 1978-79 "Who's Who"

Thirty-six students from Texas Eastern University are to be listed in the 1978-79 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, according to Tom G. Turns.

Eight of the students are elementary education majors while seven are majoring in accounting. Other academic areas represented among the 36 include English, health and physical education, and nursing with three each, biology, criminal justice, and applied arts and sciences with two each, political science, art, speech, marketing, general business and interdisciplinary studies with one each.

Twelve community and junior colleges are among the 25 colleges attended by the TEU group. Tyler Junior College was attended by 23 of the 36. Kilgore College is listed on 11 transcripts while no other college has more than two transfers.

Students named this year from Texas Eastern include Lynn Wylie of Henderson, Randy Dowell Jones and Cynthia Gale Parrish of Athens, Joann Gildart Hill, Cecilia Ann Mitchell and Carolyn Ann Rhodes of Kilgore, Judy Grant Hennington of Whitehouse, Deborah Lynn Hogg and Bobby Harold Moore of Overton and Gwenda Dale Gilliam of Arp.

Also, Mary Ann Fannette and Mary Faulk Zuinga of Jacksonville, Gary Wayne Camp of Lindale, Kenneth Nelson Berry of Palestine, Anna Lee Allen, Amanda Jane London, Donna Gail Pruitt, Nola Santi Ross and Jack Silvernale of Longview and Charles Angelico of Bullard.

Funeral Services Held For Donald M. Anthony

Funeral services for Donald M. Anthony, 48, were held at 10 a.m. Monday in Hillcrest Baptist Church, Desoto. Burial was in Laurel Land Memorial Park in Dallas.

Dr. Anthony died Friday in a Dallas hospital. At the time of his death he was serving as executive director of the Christian Education Coordinating Board, Baptist General Convention of Texas. He served as vice president for academic affairs at Texas Eastern University for two years and prior to the TEU position was president of Tarrant County Junior College, northeast campus.

An arrangement of flowers was sent representing the entire Texas Eastern community--including the board of regents, administration, faculty, staff and student body. James H. Stewart Jr., Gerald L. Morris and Robert L. Cox served as pallbearers.

TEU Site Of Events/Meetings

Texas Eastern University was the site of a number of events and meetings during November with the best turnout for a concert by the North Texas State University Lab Band. This attracted some 550 visitors to the campus.

Other TEU sponsored events include the three-night production of "The Good Doctor" by the Department of Theatre Arts, four Talented Youth Seminars for high school students, and two CPR Basic Life Support Courses.

Meetings were held on campus by the East Texas Psychological Association, District Nursing Association and the East Texas Council for the Gifted. Also, an audio-visual equipment workshop was held for the area librarians.

TEU Pledges $1,843.88

In United Way Campaign

Texas Eastern University employees have responded to the 1978 United Way campaign by giving $1,843.88. This total is 73 percent of the established TEU goal with 85 percent of the employees returning cards.

The money contributed this year is below the 1977 total of $2,089.13 and the 1976 total of $1,961.20.

Individuals who have not returned pledge cards are still asked to respond.

Amateur Radio Club To Meet

An organizational meeting of the Texas Eastern University Amateur Radio Club will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 7 in ADM 121. Sponsors of the proposed organization are Wayne H. Goff, Otho Rink and Steve Stamps.

The organization is open to students, faculty and staff of TEU.
