United Way Drive Begins on TEU Campus

The 1978 United Way campaign opens this week at Texas Eastern University with a goal of $2,500. Chairing the fund drive are Robert H. Cranford, Archie Whitfield and Sophia Lenderman.

Pledge cards are being distributed to all employees by coordinators who are representing individual schools and departments. Employees are requested to return all cards to their coordinators.

TEU has received a United Way participation plaque for five consecutive years. Last year a record $2,104.13 was raised on campus.

Twenty-one agencies are served by the United Way fund drive.

Campaign coordinators include: Robert H. Cranford, Sciences and Mathematics; Tommy Gilbreath, Applied Studies; Stephen E. Rada, Humanities and Social Sciences; Wayne Goff, Business Administration; William B. Stephens, Fine and Performing Arts; Sophia Lenderman, Library and Media Center; Gary Pike, Data Processing and Personnel; Debbie Melton, Business Office; Peggy Jackson, Central Services; Peyton Jones, Bookstore;

Larry Roberts, Police; Donald Blevins, Physical Plant; Joanna Martin, Education and Psychology; Christina Mitchell, Student Life; Robert Marsh, Admissions and Records; Archie Whitfield, Administrative Offices; and Mary Whiteman, North Campus.

Delta Kappa Gamma Workshop Held On Campus

Texas Eastern University was the site Saturday of an East Texas Area Leadership Workshop sponsored by the Delta Kappa Gamma Society (International). The organization is made up of women educators.

Among the 275 registering for the workshop was Mrs. Laginia Hale of Austin, state president of the society. The participants came from an area between Texarkana and Lufkin.

A general session was held in the Physical and Health Education Building with 10 small group workshops then held in additional spaces on campus.

Other groups meeting on the TEU campus during September include the East Texas Psychological Association and the East Texas Epileptic Association.

In addition, groups visiting the campus for tours include the Junior League of Tyler provisionals and students from the Mission Temple Christian Academy in Tyler.

TEU Student Work-Study Jobs Available

The Student Financial Aid Office of Texas Eastern University has student positions available through the federally-funded college work-study program. Students enrolled at least half-time (graduate or undergraduate) and who qualify can work up to 19 hours per week on campus.

Faculty and staff are encouraged to refer potential participants to James E. Shaw, student financial aid officer. All awards and assignments must be approved by Shaw prior to a student beginning work.

Four Receive Scholarships

Four scholarship recipients have been announced for 1978-79 by the Texas Eastern University Scholarship Committee.

Virginia Rae Andrews of Tyler is the recipient of a Pilot Club of Tyler Scholarship. She is a senior education major.

Recipients of the first M. J. Harvey Sr. Memorial Scholarship include Jerry K. Lamb and Louisa F. Adelung of Tyler and Randy D. Jones of Athens. These scholarships were endowed with a $30,000 gift to TEU in April by Tyler Corp. of Dallas and Tyler Pipe Industries.

Teacher Programs Approved

The Texas Education Agency has approved additional teacher education programs for Texas Eastern University. Receiving approval are health education and physical education at both elementary and high school levels and computer science and physical science at the high school level.

Computer science and physical science are additions while health and physical education has been divided into two specilizations.

TEU now has 16 specilization options at the elementary level and 19 under the secondary level.
