10 Piper Professors Named

Ten Piper Professors of 1980 have been selected by the board of directors of the Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation.

In announcing the recipients, the selection committee said: "You will realize the tremendously difficult task facing the selection committee each year in choosing 10 from the many outstanding professors nominated from across the state of Texas. We stand in humility and gratitude in viewing the dedicated teaching talent in Texas higher education."

Each Piper Professor receives a $1,500 award.

Piper Professors for 1980 include:

Anshel Brusilow, professor of music, North Texas State University;

Robert J. Connelly, professor of philosophy, Incarnate Word College;

Harley Davis, instructor, industry and technology, Paris Junior College;

Frank J. Doe, associate professor of biology, the University of Dallas;

Robert W. Huff, associate professor of obstetrics and gynecology, The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio;

Billy V. Koen, associate professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering, The University of Texas at Austin;

Lois E. Martin, professor of education, Hardin-Simmons University;

Eugene Paul Martinez, professor, mechanical engineering, Lamar University at Beaumont;

Allen J. Matusow, professor of history, Rice University;

Joan Phelan Quarm, associate professor of English, The University of Texas at El Paso.

UT Tyler Employees Earn Seventh United Way Award

Employees of The University of Texas at Tyler have received a United Way award shingle for the seventh consecutive year. The shingle is for participation by employees in the 1979 United Way of Greater Tyler campaign.

UT Tyler employees gave $2,167.70 in the campaign, the largest contribution in the history of the university.

The United Way plaque and shingles are displayed in the window of the Student Life Office.
