Chisholm concert scheduled

Chisholm, an exciting group of performers which have appeared with such headliners as Alabama, the Judds, Randy Travis, Sha-Na-Na, Marshall Tucker and John Schneider, will be presented in a concert and dance beginning at 8 p.m. Sept. 10 in the University Center.

The four-man vocal group and their band, the Sidemen, are dazzling audiences across the Southwest with concerts featuring their own original material -- including the title song from their recent album "Heart Stories" -- as well as dynamic renditions of hits by Huey Lewis, the Oak Ridge Boys, Lee Greenwood, Gary Morris, Michael Murphy, Beach Boys, Bee Gees and the Beatles.

With a full-time schedule of nationwide tours and a growing fan club, Chisholm members Jeffrey Jordan, Tim Darnell, Skip Headen and Mark Smith are in their seventh year of performing together. First place winners in the prestigious Dallas/Fort Worth Marlboro Country Music Roundup in 1987, the group is heard each week on the KCBI radio network in more than 80 countries.

The concert is first in the Standing Room Only series to be sponsored by the Student Association during the 1988-89 academic year. Other events scheduled include: Regency, a five-piece acappella group blending Motown, the Beatles, swing and current hits, Sept. 24; Alex Cole, winner of the national Campus Entertainment Award for Comedy, Oct. 8; and Henry Cho, one of the nation's rising stars on the comedy scene, Nov. 18.

For more information call the Student Association Office, ext. 7083, or the Office of Student Activities, ext. 7079.

Print Shop schedules inventory

The Print Shop will be closed Wednesday, Aug. 31 for annual inventory. Regular hours will resume Sept. 1.

Environmental seminar set Sept. 7

"The Handling of Hazardous Wastes," an environmental seminar for safety personnel, will be held 8:15 a.m.- noon Wednesday, Sept. 7 in BUS 158. Cosponsors are UT Tyler's Office of Continuing Education, East Texas Council of Governments and Region VI of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

The seminar is designed to provide information on state and federal laws regarding hazardous waste, the Superfund, regulations concerning underground storage tanks, and the Superfund Amendment and Reauthorization Act (SARA).

Sessions and presenters include: "Superfund Overview," Bob Hanneschlager, chief, Superfund Enforcement Branch; "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act Overview," Sam Becker, chief, Hazardous Wastes Compliance Branch; "Underground Storage Tank (UST) Regulations," William Rheam, coordinator, UST Program Branch; and "SARA, Title III," Dusty Pruitt, State Preparedness coordinator.

A question and answer session will conclude the seminar. For registration information contact John Childs, ext. 7363.

Study skills course planned Sept. 2

A non-credit course designed to help students improve their study skills will be sponsored 9 a.m.- 2 p.m. Friday, Sept. 2 in BUS 108 by the Office of Continuing Education.

The course covers three major areas: test taking strategies for various types of examinations, including true/false, multiple choice, and essay; study habits to improve retention both in and after class; and effective writing of term papers.

Tuition is $45. For more information call John Childs, ext. 7363.
